ATTRACTIONS

Friends of the Dartmoor Hill Pony Display Team choreographs and performs a musical ride of a standard befitting the Household Cavalry! Local children of all ages and abilities ride their Dartmoor Hill Ponies in a complex routine of wheels, reels, cross- overs and tricks, showing what brilliant kiddies' riding ponies our hill Ponies can become. Each year there is a theme with bright costumes, flags, bangs and puffs of smoke which the ponies take in their stride; this year it's "The Circus".

All the ponies "Hillies" are the ponies on the moor, so whatever shape, size or colour we celebrate the distinctness of these ponies by wearing Green and Blue livery, the colours chosen to represent the Dartmoor Hill Ponies. The Hillies running in semi-wild herds on Dartmoor are one unique genetic type, scientifically proven, they are distinct from any other UK breed. They also have five genetic rarities only seen in the few true upland breeds in the UK. These 'adaptive genes' mean they can live and survive in the harshest upland terrain.

Evidence found at archaeological digs in the 1970's show that Hill Ponies have grazed alongside cattle and sheep on Dartmoor since Middle Bronze Age (2000 BC). Millenia of these three species grazing together has created the Dartmoor landscape and habitats where the rare Marsh Fritillary Butterfly, Cirl Bunting and Bog Hoverfly can live. All the ponies grazing on the moor are owned by farmers with grazing rights, thus creating a diverse beautiful productive landscape; man and beast working out a survival strategy which to this day benefits and enriches the flora and fauna of Dartmoor. The skills of wild farming passed from generation to generation over 1000s of years. Come and see us on our stand, we'll be delighted to tell you more.

Oh yes.....The Display Team performs much better when the Audience cheer and clap a lot!

CAKE RECIPES

MADEIRA CAKE

5oz (125g) margarine	A little finely grated lemon rind
5oz (125g) sugar	3 eggs
8oz (200g) self raising flour	Milk to mix
¼ teaspoon salt

Bake for 1¼ hours in a moderate oven

GINGER CAKE

8oz (200g) self raising flour	4oz (100g) soft brown sugar
4oz (100g) butter	¼ (150mls) pint milk
½ teaspoon bicarbonate of soda	4 tablespoons black treacle
2 eggs	2 teaspoons ground ginger
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon

METHOD: Mix all dry ingredients together and sieve, into a basin. In a pan heat butter, milk and treacle, stirring well until melted and combined. Beat eggs into dry ingredients until well mixed and smooth, then beat into treacle mix. Pour mixture into the cake tin and bake for about 45 minutes, when the top springs back when pressed. Cool in tin, turn out and place in an air tight tin for a few days to become moist. 180°C/350°F/gas mark 4.
